Quote Book For Night By

How could I say to Him: Blessed be Thou, Almighty, Master of the Universe, who chose us among all nations to be tortured day and night, to watch as our fathers, our mothers, our brothers, end up in the furnaces? Praised be Thy Holy Name, for having chosen us to be slaughtered on Thine altar?" — Elie Wiesel, Night

Quotes from Night - BookRags.com

This passage, from Night's third section, occurs just after Eliezer and his father realize they have survived the first selection at Birkenau. It is perhaps Night's most famous passage, notable because it is one of the few moments in the memoir where Eliezer breaks out of the continuous narrative stream with which he tells his tale. As he reflects upon his horrendous first night in the ...

This is the final passage of Night, Eliezer's final statement about the effect the Holocaust has had on him. As such, it reinforces the book's deliberately limited perspective. Night does not pretend to be a comprehensive survey of World War II experiences, nor does it try to explore the general experience of Jews in concentration camps. Instead, it focuses on one specific story—Eliezer ...
